Handouts

Income & Expenditures for April & May 2019

Balance as of June 1st 2019 $14,030.85

Cynthia Riley went over the income and expenditures sheets

Then went over the Trap & release program which has proven to be a great success

The SSVPOA has been covering the $10.00 Dollar fee

so there has been no charge to the property owner

Deer have been seen in our area.

Thanks go to Douglas Seal for all his efforts to get things such as potholes and other things done.

The Boat Ramp is still in good shape

Trying to get the Fencing checked out and in good order.

Snow Birds have been heading out of our area

It is common sense to watch out for their Property as well as your own.

If you want a copy of these minutes sent to you, please let me have your E-mail addresses.

Scott Anderson went over The Animal control regulations For Marion County

There are Some Dogs running loose and they can be dangerous

Scott Anderson Gave his E-Mail address as scottanderson@marioncounty.org

If you can get a picture and E-Mail him with that, He will try to get that taken care of

If you don't notify him, he will not know.

The Phone number is 352-671-8717

Nami Family Support Group meets every 3rd Monday 6:00 PM to 7:30 PM at The Forest United Methodist Church, 17635 East Highway 40, Silver Springs Florida

There are some renters and others who don't have a copy of the SSVPOA by laws

Cynthia Riley will try to mail some copies to those that ask for them
